

Panoramic City Tour of Belgrade (October 7th, 8th, 10th)

Belgrade, the capital of Serbia, is located at the crossroads of Eastern and Western Europe and it is the third largest city in South-eastern Europe after Istanbul and Athens. Belgrade had around ten names in the past. As each conqueror claimed it, they immediately changed its name, but the new name almost always spoke of its beauty and whiteness. It was called Belgrad, Bello Grado, Alba Urbs, Alba Graeca, Griechisch Weissenburg, Nándor Fehérvár, Nándor Alba, Castelbianco. All these names are translations of the Slavic word Beograd. Belgrade the city of culture, celebrates a rich mix of culture, architecture, natural combination of oriental passion and European finesse. Belgrade has more than 1.700.000 citizens today and is growing into a true metropolis. Belgrade is the city of youth.
